

PUBLIC MEETING

NEW WORKPLACE LAWS ATTACK WORKERS, FAMILIES, AND COMMUNITIES

Tuesday 6th September 2005, 7- 9.00pm

Collingwood Town Hall

140 Hoddle St. Abbotsford (Mel Ref: 2C, H10)

SPEAKERS:

Michele O'Neil, (TCFUA)

Zana Bytheway, (Jobwatch)

Marcus Clayton, (Slater & Gordon)

City of Yarra, Australian Services Union

The Howard Government is poised to introduce harsh industrial laws. If successful, these laws will affect workers, families & communities in the City of Yarra, leading to:

- lower living standards
- reduced working conditions,
- increased job insecurity,
- longer working days, and
- fewer entitlements for less pay.

Hear how the laws will affect your workplace, union, family & community – have your say.
